Hawaii Police Department

During Police Week, and in honor of Officer Bronson Kaliloo, earlier this month six members of our department travelled to Washington D.C. to represent HPD during the National Police Week ceremonies. The six officers, including Sergeant Ryan Pagan, Sergeant James Steffen, Detective Paul Mangus, Officer Ronald Paro, Officer Shaine Tavares, and Officer Bryson Pilor, took time off and paid for the trip with their own funds in order to pay tribute to Officer Kaliloo.

Organized by the National Law Enforcement Memorial and Museum, the ceremonies and events in our nation's Capital draw thousands of law enforcement officials from across the country to honor fallen officers.

HPD's team participated in events held by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund, including a visit to the National Police Memorial, the White House, the National Mall, and U.S. Capitol.

Pictured are the officers in front of the State Capitol in Washington D.C.

BIKE SAFETY TIPS
for your family

ALWAYS WEAR A HELMET

A proper fitting helmet should set right above the eyebrows and be tightly buckled so it doesn't slip when riding.

OBEY TRAFFIC SIGNS

Always ride with the traffic, obeying traffic signs and using proper hand signals.

NEVER WEAR HEADPHONES

When riding your bike, turn off the music and do not wear headphones so you can devote your full attention to the road.

NIGHT RIDING

Try not to ride at night or in bad weather, but if you must, remember to have lights and proper reflectors on your bicycle and reflectors on your clothing.

DISCUSS RIDING ROUTS

CLOTHING CAUTION

Watch out for loose pant legs or shoelaces that can get stuck in bike chains.

Please celebrate responsibly!

The Hawaii Police Department will be conducting DUI checkpoints to ensure motorists are traveling safely.
